Overview

In this 5-day tour, we will step into the Toya-Usu UNESCO Global Geopark and Kuromatsunai town to get an idea of how to live in harmony with volcanoes.

Our journey starts with Upopoy National Ainu Museum and Park. A visit to Upopoy offers us a glimpse of the traditional ways of the Ainu culture and the lives in harmony with nature.

The next destination is Mt. Usu, which is in the Toya-Usu UNESCO Global Geopark. Ainu people and later “wajin” (Japanese from the main island) have lived alongside the volcanoes in this area. What distinguishes this area are tours guided by locals knowledgeable about volcanoes.

In this tour, we will enjoy the gifts from the volcanoes which are delicious food, hot spring, the beautiful scenery, and thinking of our home which, is the earth.
